

PEGGY W. BARNES

Strategically Simplifying Lives

Peggy's got something to say...

...and your audience will actually enjoy hearing it! Peggy's speeches are educational, entertaining, and captivating.

Peggy loves to share hope filled messages to

- help audiences live a more purposeful life
- deal with the clutter in their home and their head
- embrace their story and bring awareness to their thoughts, values and beliefs

Peggy's years as a certified professional organizer, life coach, and volunteer have given her an inside look into people's lives. She understands we all need help organizing our physical and emotional "stuff" and learning how to navigate through our head to live a more peace filled life.

Peggy loves animated movies, Andy Griffith, checking things off her to do list and reading. She is a tad bit on the competitive side, which might be the result of having six siblings. Peggy is married to Ron (or RB as she likes to call him), her husband of 33 years and is mother to three grown children, daughter, Koren, sons, Banks and Whitman and G-mama to one precious boy, Barnes.
